Community Health

Community Health Centers provide quality primary health care throughout Rhode Island. Health centers accept RIteCare and most other types of insurance and also see people who are uninsured on a sliding fee scale. They offer a wide range of services to adults of all ages and children. Contact each center directly for a list of services or call the Rhode Island Health Center Association at 274-1771 or visit their website at www.RIHCA.org.

American Opportunity Credit

The purpose of this tax credit is to make college more affordable by directly reducing the amount of money a person owes in taxes. The maximum American Opportunity Tax Credit for the 2009 tax year is $2,500 in each of a student's first four years of college.

irs.gov

Lifetime Learning Credit

Unlike the American Opportunity Credit, which can be claimed only during the first 4 years, the Lifetime Learning Credit can be used for qualifying courses at the undergraduate, graduate or professional level. The credit is 20% of the first $10,000 (up to $2,000 per return) for eligible students.
