Comments: The Knights of CCRI notched their third consecutive victory, this time defeating the Lions of Nassau Community College 9-0. The match started with singles and CCRI wrapped up the match by the time doubles started – taking all six singles positions although three went to three sets, and one of those to a third-set tie-break. CCRI didn't stop there, however, sweeping the doubles as well, with all three doubles positions going to a third set. The match of the day was Alex Cavanagh in #1 singles. Alex could barely walk as he woke up today with a knot of muscle in his right thigh. He felt it would work itself out once he began the match...but it never really did. Alex dropped the first set and found himself down an early break at 1-4 in the second...and then proceeded to win 12 of the next 17 games to take the second set 7-5 and the third 6-4!! The Knights travel to Selden, NY to take on Suffolk Community College on March 27.
