

General Studies

GENERAL STUDIES (GENS) ASSOCIATE IN ARTS (A.A.) DEGREE

The degree in General Studies should enable students to demonstrate a broad understanding of the arts and sciences. Graduates should demonstrate effective communication and computational skills and possess the capacity for continued learning and logical reasoning. The program allows students the opportunity to select any instructional credit courses at CCRI for which he/she satisfies the prerequisites.

IMPORTANT:

Many courses required in this program are transferable to four-year colleges and universities in pursuit of a bachelor's degree.
