

TRAVEL, TOURISM & HOSPITALITY CERTIFICATE PROGRAM (TRVL)

Concentrations: Hospitality Management, Travel Management

Note: This Certificate is a part-time evening/weekend program

Tourism is currently Rhode Island's second largest and fastest growing industry. The CCRI Travel, Tourism & Hospitality Program provides students with the skills and knowledge necessary for successful careers in this growing industry. Graduates are prepared for entry-level positions with airlines, airport operations, car rental companies, conventions and meetings, corporate travel, cruise industry and the lodging industry. In their last semester, students are given the opportunity to work in a local travel or hospitality environment. Students have a choice of either a travel management or lodging management concentration.

MAJOR REQUIREMENTS

Students who complete this Certificate Program have two options:

- Enter the travel and tourism industry with marketable skills and training
- Continue your education in the CCRI General Studies Program. The General Studies degree program requires 60 credits for completion, 28 of which are elective credits. The Travel, Tourism and Hospitality Certificate program requires 34 credits, including six in math and English, which are also part of the General Studies Program. The remaining 28 credits from this program can be used to meet the 28 elective credits for the General Studies Degree. Note: Students may complete the Travel, Tourism and Hospitality Certificate Program first and then apply all credits toward a General Studies degree or work concurrently in the two programs.

Transfer:

All general education as well as Travel and Hospitality courses transfer to Johnson & Wales
