HONORS FORUM

featuring

THE CLIMATE PROJECT:

Based upon Al Gore's talk in "An Inconvenient Truth"

with Paul Beaudette

Professor of environmental science at The Wheeler School

Paul Beaudette, a graduate of Rhode Island College, has spent more than 30 years teaching in Rhode Island. He trained with Al Gore and a team of renowned scientists and environmental educators in Nashville on The Climate Project and is certified to give talks on the topic. Each trainee takes part in an intensive tutorial led by Gore about issues surrounding global warming and receives technical training to present a version of Gore's computer-based slide show, which became the basis of his book and documentary, "An Inconvenient Truth."

Tuesday, May 1, at 7 p.m.

Bobby Hackett Theatre
2nd Floor, Knight Campus
400 East Avenue
Warwick, RI

A coffee reception will follow and CCRI's Honors students will present their honors projects.

This event is free and open to the public.
