NOTE: Numbers are reported for the calendar year (spring and fall semesters)

Rhode Island College continues to attract the greatest number of Community College transfers (51 percent of those reported in 2000) followed by the University of Rhode Island (27 percent). From 1991 to 1992, the number of reported transfers to in-state colleges and universities jumped 23 percent. Since the peak year of 1992 (1,260 transfers), transfers to other colleges in Rhode Island decreased by 152 students or 12 percent.

The total number of transfers increased 7.5 percent from 1998 to 1999. RIC reported an increase of 89 students in 1999.

Information on transfers who enrolled in schools in other states before graduating from the Community College was not available.
