

VETSUCCESS ON CAMPUS

“Boots to Books” Series

Partnership with CCRI, RIC, VA Medical Center, VA Nursing Academy, and Operation Vets

* Workshops for ALL Student Veterans, Prospective Student Veterans, and Dependents *
Providing information and skill building to prepare you for college and career success!

Workshop One: GI Bill – Getting Started

6-23-11 (Thurs)

- Overview of different education benefits for Veterans and Service Members
- Preview of upcoming GI Bill changes
- Including step by step guide on how to apply for GI Bill and how to apply for school
- Specifics on other need-to-know-facts for prospective student Veterans

Workshop Two: Career Exploration

6-30-11 (Thurs)

- Discuss the importance of doing research and exploration before jumping into school
- VA education benefits generally cover 36 months of entitlement (48 months max) – use it wisely!
- During this session, each participant will engage in a free ‘career interest testing’ series

Note:  Workshop # 2 and # 3 are intended to be offered together for the career interest testing and review **

Workshop Three: Choosing the Right Major and School

7-7-11 (Thurs)

- Review of testing from Workshop Two with career exploration based on highest interest areas
- Review of labor market for careers of interest
- Assess job availability and salary for your chosen career
- Choose the right major and the right school for that major

Note:  Workshops # 3 through # 7 are part of a series **

Workshop Four: Getting Organized for College

7-14-11 (Thurs)

Learn the rules of the game in college
Manage your time, energy, and money

Workshop Five: Developing Successful Learning Styles and Processing Information

7-21-11 (Thurs)

Workshop Six: Written Work and Test Taking Techniques

7-28-11 (Thurs)

Workshop Seven: Improving Creativity – Critical Thinking and Decision Making

8-4-11 (Thurs)

Workshop Eight: How Readjustment Can Impact School

8-10-11 (Wed*)

War references in school	Not being able to relate to peers
Understanding hypervigilance	Fluctuating motivation

Workshop Nine: Health & Wellness – Things to Consider as You Return to School

8-17-11 (Wed*)

Workshop Ten: Tackling Your Job Search

8-18-11 (Thurs)

Tips on how to get started, the reality of active job searching, how to job search online, and what makes a good resume

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

All sessions and materials are free!!!

Location: CCRI Flanagan Campus
1762 Louisquisset Pike, Lincoln, RI

Time: Each session will run from 5:00pm to 6:30pm

Sign Up NOW!! Contact Micaela Black Estrella at:
401-648-1597 or Email: micaela.black@va.gov

 Registration will close on May 31, 2011

