HMNS (Human Services)

LEVEL I FIELD and PRACTICUM EXPERIENCES

HMNS 1200, 1201, 1210 and 1220

All field and practicum courses are competency-based internships designed to train students in basic human service skills through a combination of field placement and seminar activities. Field placements range from 50 to 90 hours per semester and require a one- to three-hour campus-based seminar. (Prerequisite: Grades of C or better in HMNS 1010 and the required Human Services courses for each concentration) Note: Eligibility for field placement at all levels is subject to academic standing and instructor recommendations regarding readiness. Seminar 1–3 hours, Fieldwork: 4–8 hours

LEVEL II FIELD EXPERIENCES

HMNS 2310, 2320, 2340 and 2360

Level II internships are designed to develop intermediate skills in various disciplines. Students are assigned to cooperating agencies and schools for 75 to 90 hours per semester and also are required to attend a one- to two-hour seminar each week. (Prerequisites: Grade of C or better in Field I and required Human Services courses) Seminar: 1–2 hours, Fieldwork: 6–8 hours

LEVEL III FIELD EXPERIENCES

HMNS 2410, 2420, 2440 and 2460

Level III internships combine field experience and seminar to further develop advanced intervention and implementation skills in all Human Services concentrations. Students are assigned to a cooperating agency or school for 75 to 90 hours per semester and are required to attend a one- to two-hour seminar each week. (Prerequisites: Grades of “C” or better in Field Experiences I and II and required Human Services courses) Seminar: 1–2 hours, Fieldwork: 6–8 hours

HMNS 1010 - Introduction to Helping and Human Services
(3 Credits)

This is the first in a sequence of required courses for internship placement in all Human Services Concentrations. This course provides a working familiarity with theories of human development and will explore values and helping skills that are generic to the fields of teaching and human services. Students examine personal and professional attitudes, values and beliefs that correlate with high effectiveness and will review current research for an understanding of social and behavioral issues critical to effective teaching and helping. Tools to assist students in self-assessment, use of a sequential model for helping and the development of critical reading and reflective writing skills are provided. Note: Grade of C or better required for Human Services program students. Lecture: 3 hours

HMNS 1040 - Drugs and Human Behavior
(4 Credits)

This course provides general and specialized knowledge concerning the bio-psycho-social antecedents and consequences of drug taking behaviors. Additionally, it carefully examines the nature of compulsion as it relates to the activity addictions. The use of medical, behavioral and psychodynamic models promote an understanding of addiction as a process, not an event, and students are exposed to current research documenting the connections between addictive behavior activities and brain chemistry. Students will gain knowledge and skills in the areas of assessment, intervention, treatment, relapse prevention and health promotion for working with individuals, groups and families affected by addictive and compulsive disorders. This course is required for placement in a substance abuse internship. Note: Grade of C or better required for Human Services program students. Lecture: 4 hours

HMNS 1080 - Health, Nutrition and the Young Child
(3 Credits)

This course provides students with basic concepts of health, nutrition and food science as they apply to the care and education of young children. Students acquire those skills necessary for incorporating critical concepts into programming and curriculum in a wide variety of early childhood settings. Students will be required to spend 4-6 hours over the course of the semester participating in experiences and researching application of course content in a public school, licensed educational setting or licensed child care. Note: This course is approved by the Department of Education for RI Early Childhood Teacher Certification. Grade of C or better required for Human Services program students. Lecture: 3 hours
HMNS 1090 - Foundations of Gerontology and Elder Care
(3 Credits)
Using a competency-based approach, this course provides students with specialized skills needed to plan and implement the professional delivery of direct services to senior adults, nursing home residents, the frail and elderly and the chronic or disabled senior patient. Students become familiar with the construction and interpretation of diagnostic assessments as part of senior activity planning that addresses the physical, social and emotional needs of the nursing home client. Note: Grade of C or better required for Human Services program students. Lecture: 3 hours

HMNS 1130 - Introduction to Interpersonal Violence
(3 Credits)
This course is designed to introduce students to current research and theories of interpersonal violence. Students acquire knowledge about developmental approaches as well as psychological and sociological theories as they relate to the effects of interpersonal violence on individuals and society. A systems perspective is used to examine both victim and perpetrator profiles in the areas of child abuse and neglect, attachment abuse, elder abuse, partner abuse, hate crimes and youth violence. Note: Grade of C or better required for Human Services program students. Lecture: 3 hours

HMNS 1140 - Interventions in Interpersonal Violence
(3 Credits)
This course is designed as an extension of HMNS 1130 and will explore the continuum of prevention, intervention and treatment in interpersonal violence. Students will learn about treatment and intervention models as well as current research describing advocacy, psychological, sociological and systems approaches. The specific strategies suggested by each are reviewed toward providing students with skills for appropriate interventions. Note: Grade of C or better required for Human Services program students. Lecture: 3 hours

HMNS 1200 - Practicum I: Service Learning
(3 Credits)
All field and practicum courses are competency-based internships designed to train students in basic human service skills through a combination of field placement and seminar activities. Field placements range from 50 to 90 hours per semester and require a one- to three- hour campus-based seminar. (Prerequisite: Grades of C or better in HMNS 1010 and the required Human Services courses for each concentration) Note: Eligibility for field placement at all levels is subject to academic standing and instructor recommendations regarding readiness. Seminar 1–3 hours, Fieldwork: 4– 8 hours

HMNS 1210 - Field Experience and Seminar I - Child Development
(3 Credits)
All field and practicum courses are competency-based internships designed to train students in basic human service skills through a combination of field placement and seminar activities. Field placements range from 50 to 90 hours per semester and require a one- to three- hour campus-based seminar. (Prerequisite: Grades of C or better in HMNS 1010 and the required Human Services courses for each concentration) Note: Eligibility for field placement at all levels is subject to academic standing and instructor recommendations regarding readiness. Seminar 1–3 hours, Fieldwork: 4– 8 hours

HMNS 1220 - Field Experience and Seminar I - Education/Special Needs
(3 Credits)
All field and practicum courses are competency-based internships designed to train students in basic human service skills through a combination of field placement and seminar activities. Field placements range from 50 to 90 hours per semester and require a one- to three- hour campus-based seminar. (Prerequisite: Grades of C or better in HMNS 1010 and the required Human Services courses for each concentration) Note: Eligibility for field placement at all levels is subject to academic standing and instructor recommendations regarding readiness. Seminar 1–3 hours, Fieldwork: 4– 8 hours

HMNS 2030 - Emergent Literacy: Reading Readiness in ECE
(3 Credits)
This course introduces students to the theoretical and practical foundations of emergent literacy. Students will develop teacher competencies in areas of developmental assessment, teaching methodology, curriculum planning and implementation. This course is required for RI Certification in Early Childhood Education. Note: Grade of C or better required for Human Services program students. (Prerequisite: HMNS 2100, 2120, 1210, 2310) Lecture: 3 hours

HMNS 2060 - Foundations of Teaching and Learning
(3 Credits)
This course provides a theoretical and practical foundation for understanding the evolution and current state of American schooling. Students will examine critical issues related to classroom environment, learning styles and appropriate instruction, curriculum development, standards and diversity. Students will gain a practical understanding of those ethics and indices of professional development that correlate with effective teaching. This is a required course for teacher associates, education and special education majors. Note: Grade of C or better required for Human Services program students. Lecture: 3 hours

HMNS 2140 - Guiding Children's Behavior
(3 Credits)
This course examines positive strategies in supporting and guiding the emotional self-regulation and social competence in early childhood development. Emphasis is placed on intervention strategies to critical issues common to young children. Student will learn skills related to shaping the ways young children think, learn, react to challenges and develop relationships. Students will practice positive guidance strategies and learn about classroom design as a focus of prevention of behavior problems. Students may be required to spend 4-6 hours over the course of the semester conducting observations in an educational or licensed childcare setting. Note: Grade of C or better is required for Human Services program students. Lecture: 3 hours

HMNS 2150 - Parent and Child Relations
(3 Credits)
This course explores the parent-child relationship as it develops and evolves within diverse family systems and reviews strategies for working with parents. Special attention is placed upon the various developmental stages that both children and parents pass through and, in turn, how children and parents influence and challenge each other's development. Selected topics may include the impact that various parenting and behavioral control styles can have on children, how such issues as culture, social class, children's temperament, divorce, abuse, special needs and parental mental health can impact parenting and child well-being. Students develop an understanding of how to assess parent-child relations and review behavioral strategies for working with parents in educational and social settings. Note: Grade of C or better required for Human Services program students. Lecture: 3 hours

HMNS 2170 - Learning Disabilities
(3 Credits)
This course provides students with an understanding of learning disabilities as they manifest in children and as they impact learning and development. Students are able to recognize the characteristics: impact on self-concept; various auditory, visual, perceptual and motor challenges; language delay and hyperactivity and become familiar with diagnostic tests and the appropriate remediation techniques most often prescribed. The Individuals with Disabilities Education Act, along with current changes in research and social policy, frame discussions around eligibility for special services, the referral process and parental rights. (Completion of HMNS 2070 strongly recommended.) Note: Grade of C or better required for Human Services program students. Lecture: 3 hours

HMNS 2180 - Significant Developmental Disabilities
(3 Credits)
The course provides a specialized understanding of individuals with significant developmental disabilities that includes a focus on multi-sensory impairment, severe intellectual disabilities and profound multiple disability. Students will learn strategies through hands-on activities for developing appropriate intervention and remedial skills. Use of technology, supportive equipment and environmental modifications are included. (Completion of HMNS 2070 recommended.) Lecture: Note: Grade of C or better required for Human Services program students. 3 hours

HMNS 2190 - Infant/Toddler Care: Methods and Materials
(3 Credits)
This course is designed to assist in the planning of curriculum and caregiving for infants and toddlers in home family child care and center-based settings. Students develop skills for planning, selecting developmentally appropriate materials and designing the physical and social environments related to the promotion of infant and toddler development. Students will be required to spend 4-6 hours over the course of the semester conducting observations in a licensed infant-toddler educational setting or a licensed family child care setting. (Completion of HMNS 2100 recommended.) Note: Grade of C or better required for Human Services program students. Lecture: 3 hours

HMNS 2200 - Assessment Interviewing for Treatment Planning
(3 Credits)
This course provides an in-depth study of the interviewing process, including methods for creating client safety and rapport and most importantly how to obtain and assess client information. Data collection and client assessment are the initial steps in the social service process; therefore, this is the first course in the social work, mental health, gerontology and substance abuse concentrations for teaching appropriate intervention skills. Students are taught how to use the interviewing process to initiate helping strategies for use in a variety of mental health and social service settings. This course is a prerequisite for HMNS-1200. Note: Grade of C or better required for Human Services program students. Lecture: 3 hours

HMNS 2220 - Social Work Program and Policy Analysis
(3 Credits)
This course critically analyzes the values, theories, history, economics and politics associated with the development, implementation and evaluation of social policies and programs. Special attention is given to policies in the areas of poverty, education, health, race and sex. In addition to understanding the forces and processes that establish or change social policies, emphasis is placed on the systematic analysis of both existing and proposed social policy. Students will review current trends in national social policies and their effect on state/federal programs with particular attention to oppressed populations. This course places heavy emphasis on critical analysis. Students will learn to build on their skills in analyzing and critiquing various social policies. (Prerequisite: SOCS 1010, HMNS 1010, 1200, 2110, 2200) Note: Grade of C or better required for Human Services program students. Lecture: 3 hours

HMNS 2230 - Individuals, Families and Small Groups
(3 Credits)
This course examines how biological, psychological, social and cultural influences affect the behavior of individuals and families. Emphasis is placed on how human behavior is affected by social context and the forces of oppression as well as the impact of oppression on women, lesbians and gay men, persons with physical disabilities and the aged. Skills required to work with these populations, using an ecological/generalist person in environment approach, are discussed. (Recommended prerequisites: HMNS 1010, HMNS 1200, HMNS 2110, PSYC 2020, PSYC 2030, BIOL 1010 recommended). Note: Grade of C or better required for Human Services program students. Lecture: 3 hours

HMNS 2290 - Driver and Traffic Safety Education
