

COMMUNITY COLLEGE
OF RHODE ISLAND

Reverse Transfer Overview & Opt-in Information

Overview: Students who attend the Community College of Rhode Island, Rhode Island College, the University of Rhode Island or other regionally accredited colleges and universities may qualify for the conferral of the associate degree or certificate from the Community College of Rhode Island through the reverse transfer policy if the following conditions are met:

Eligibility to participate:

1. The student eligible for conferral of the associate degree through reverse transfer has earned cumulatively, a minimum of 60 college-level credits combined from CCRI and other school(s) attended.
2. The student has not earned an associate or bachelor's degree.
3. Student has a GPA greater than or equal to 2.0 (at time of graduation).
4. Student has resolved any financial issues at the sending or receiving institution.
5. Students agree to the exchange of educational data request in compliance with Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) regulations.

Eligibility for Associate Degree or Certificate

1. The student has completed (or will complete) a minimum of 15 college-level credits at CCRI (or one-fourth of the number of credits required for the associate degree or certificate).
2. The specific degree and graduation requirements of CCRI must be met for the associate degree or certificate to be awarded.
3. Students who have completed graduation requirements at CCRI once the courses are transferred back from the college or university will have the degree or certificate awarded after the transcripts have been evaluated.
4. Students who have a grievance regarding the awarding of a degree through reverse transfer will follow the procedure identified in the section on Students Rights and Responsibilities in the Council on Postsecondary Education's policy on Articulation and Transfer.

Application Instructions: To participate in the Reverse Transfer Program the following steps in the application process must be completed:

1. Apply using the Reverse Transfer Student Opt-in Form.
2. Return the Reverse Transfer Student Opt-in Form along with your official transcripts from previous schools attended (official copies must be in sealed envelopes from sending institutions) to:
CCRI, Records Department, Attn. Reverse Transfer, 1762 Louisquisset Pike, Lincoln, RI 02865.
3. Documents will be reviewed for program eligibility.
4. Students will be notified through the mail if they qualify for the Reverse Transfer program. Students not eligible may still be eligible for general transfer and will be notified of their status.
5. Students needing to complete additional coursework will be encouraged to meet with an academic advisor to develop an educational plan to complete program requirements.
6. Questions regarding the program can be sent to reversetransfer@ccri.edu or you may call 401-333-7092.
