

John McKenna

B. M. In Jazz Studies from William Paterson University 1989

Saxophonist John McKenna lived and played professionally in New York City for sixteen years. During that time John toured with Joe Lovano playing in jazz festivals and clubs throughout Europe and the U.S. in his Celebrating Sinatra band, he recorded on organist Larry Golding's Warner Bros. CD Big Stu, and recorded two CDs of his own: The Solar Side, which features drummer Victor Lewis and bassist Larry Grenadier, and Apparition. He continues to play professionally and teach in the New England area.