

Instructions for obtaining a Limited Provisional Permit (After passing the DMV permit exam at CCRI)

Once you have passed the DMV knowledge exam at CCRI, you may obtain your Limited Provisional Permit by reservation at any open DMV branch (Cranston, Woonsocket, Middletown, Wakefield). AAA is unable to perform this transaction. Below are the steps required to make this reservation.

1) Go to <http://www.dmv.ri.gov/>

2) Click the button on the home page to make a reservation.

3) From the menu select the desired location

Location*
Wakefield

Is the purpose of your visit to get a REAL ID?*

No

Transaction Type*
License/ID/Registration

Visit Type*
New ID/Permit/License (Excludes Permit Tests)

4) Select "No" for REAL ID and select "License/ID/Registration" as the transaction type.

5) Select "New ID/Permit/License (Excludes Permit Tests)" as the Visit Type

6) Follow the remaining menu items to choose the desired available date and time for your appointment.

Applicants who have passed the DMV knowledge exam at CCRI will be given a green certificate. You must bring the green CCRI certificate to the scheduled DMV location, at the reservation time, along with:

- ✓ The License/ID/Permit Application, completed and signed by a parent or legal guardian*
- ✓ A birth document
- ✓ A social security card
- ✓ Proof of residency documents

All documents must be originals. Please refer to checklist (the third page of the License/ID/Permit Application) for a complete list of documents needed to perform this transaction.

This form must be notarized prior to arrival at DMV if the parent/legal guardian is not accompanying the applicant.

All forms are available at <http://www.dmv.ri.gov/licenses/new/>